

Please do not change our Indiana law on telephone privacy protection. It is so wonderful not to be constantly bothered by telemarketers. We used to receive 15 - 20 calls everyday and hated it. Now we have more time to ourselves and our family without these bothersome calls. I wish they were even stricter so please leave our law alone.